ABOUT NUSH

Nush Lewis's performances are a testament to her multifaceted talent and creativity. Whether as a solo act, leading a band, or collaborating with other artists, her live shows are immersive experiences that captivate audiences. Nush has graced the stages of renowned music festivals across India, including Ziro Festival of Music and Magnetic Fields, leaving a lasting impression with her enchanting performances. Her international debut took place in Australia, where she performed at the esteemed Adelaide Fringe Festival following the release of her third EP. Notably, Nush had the honor of opening for Cinematic Orchestra during their India tour in April 2023, further solidifying her reputation as a captivating live performer.

Donning multiple hats, as a composer, she's collaborated with producer Ayan De in 2015 and released her debut EP "Fused", which was critically acclaimed. In April 2019 she released her second EP, "Bridges", which is an art collaborative concept piece with artist, Vaishnavi Kumar. "Bridges" set itself apart from Lewis's previous work as it musically included live elements as well as strong visual elements. She released her 3rd EP "Forgotten Verses" in Feb 2023 which was met with much acclaim.
